Athens Embassy Missile Not Chinese-Made?

---

¶4. Reporters asked Liu if there will be an investigation into reports that the missile used to attack the American Embassy in Greece recently was made in China and asked what actions China is taking to ensure weapons from its past arms sales do not fall into terrorist hands. Liu responded that China has not received proof that the missile was manufactured in China and observed that the international weapons market is "complex." China only sells arms to sovereign countries and requires that buyers do not transfer the weapons without Chinese consent.

Hu to Visit 8 African Nations, Including Sudan

¶5. Liu confirmed that President Hu Jintao will visit Sudan, South Africa and six other African countries soon. Further announcements will be made as plans are confirmed in the near future.

New Guangzhou Bishop Approved Vatican?

¶6. Liu deflected a request to confirm Hong Kong media reports that China and the Vatican jointly approved ordination of a bishop in Guangzhou. China's position on the issue has not changed, Liu said. China remains willing to establish normal state-to-state relations with the Vatican as long as the Vatican agrees to recognize the People's Republic of China as the government of the only China in the world and to refrain from interfering in China's internal affairs.
